The annual meeting of the United Helping Society was in session here October 3, 4 and 5. On Thursday night Hon. J. W. Grant, of Nashville, addressed the Convention and the citizens on the "Beauties and Benefits of Unity: Upbuilding Home and Happiness by Helping and Association."

The address, which was very instructive, was well received. Progress was reported along all lines, and the people are awakening to the importance of owning their own homes and having a bank account. Lawyer Grant became a member, and was chosen the Attorney for the Society. On Sunday, Oct. 5, Rev. Mr. Coleman preached the annual sermon, which was very inspiring to the members and the public. The purpose of the Society is to encourage its members to secure homes and to become, as far as may be, self-sustaining. Rev. Joseph B. Mullins is the General Manager.

SUNSHINE HOME NOTES.

The sad news of the going home of Miss Mary G. Burdette, after several weeks of suffering, reached this office Monday, Sept. 30. For many years Miss Burdette was Corresponding Secretary of the Women's Baptist Home Mission Society, which has been, and is still doing a great work for the uplift of the people. She was indeed a great friend to this people and proved it in many ways.

While we feel this loss keenly, yet we know our Father doeth all things well and we meekly submit to his will.

Mr. and Mrs. Valentine, of Chattanooga, spent a very pleasant time with us on Monday of last week.

Mr. McIntosh, of Mt. Juliet, gave the Bible lesson in our Wednesday afternoon prayer service last week. Subject: "Christian Growth."

It was decided in our Workers' Conference on September 30 that the meetings would be held monthly instead of weekly, and the second Monday in each month was the day appointed. All are cordially invited to be present on this day at ten a. m., at which time the Day Home will be remembered in a tangible way. At the next meeting an address, subject, "Temperance," will be delivered by Mrs. S. E. Griggs.

Miss Sylvia Moore, our bookkeeper, is on the sick list. We are glad to say at this writing that she is very much better and we hope to see her at her desk in a few days.

The J. P. Moore Foreign Mission Society held its election of officers Monday night, October 7. The following persons were elected: Mrs. L. J. Rhodes, President; Miss A. M. Roberts, Vice President; Miss Hattie Claybrooks, Secretary; Miss S. E. Moore, Treasurer.

DAY HOME CLUB.

The Day Home Club held its monthly meeting in the Day Home, 581 Fourth avenue, South, Wednesday at 3 o'clock, with Mrs. J. C. Napier in the chair. The meeting was intensely interesting. Ways and means for increasing the usefulness of the home were thoroughly discussed. The children are now being taught through the fourth grade. It was found to be urgently necessary to open for the benefit of the younger children a kindergarten as soon as possible. It developed that Mrs. Gertie Rambeaux, formerly director of kindergarten work in St. Louis, is to spend the winter in this city. Mrs. Rambeaux has an enviable reputation as a "kindergartner" and the club is anxious to have her take charge of this work in the home. Could $10 a month be secured for this department the club could arrange to employ Mrs. Rambeaux.

Many of the members have been out of town for the summer, but are gradually returning. The vice president, Mrs. I. B. Scott, has effectively managed affairs during the absence of Mrs. Napier. The members are planning for hard, earnest work this year. Though some of the most energetic and enthusiastic workers are still out of the city, the members reported $8.98.

The report of the mother and manager of the home, Mrs. Adah M. Waters, follows:

There are now 16 day children in the home, 9 of whom pay five cents a day. The others pay less or nothing. There are 9 boarding children, from 8 of whom we receive $4.50 a week; twenty-five cents a week has been paid for the other one. There are many children who need the care and influence of the Home, but are unable to come and for want of money we are unable to take them.

Friends have, last month and this, given us some of the things, the absence of which has seriously hindered the work. We still badly need chairs and tables and money to paint and paper. The house is as clean as soap, water and labor can make it, but it still remains unsightly. We have been seriously embarrassed for sheets, pillow slips, beds, mattresses and a cooking stove, aprons for the children and a place for their clothes. Some of these needs, we are more than thankful to state, have been supplied. The Lord is with us as is evidenced by his people showing interest in this work for children.

Four cheap sanitary folding beds have been made and put in, cotton pads and springs secured, shelves for clothing put in, closets, a large range is now in the kitchen. It is partly the gift of Mr. Butterff. Up to the first week in September a two-cap parlor cook had been used for cooking. Mr. Littlebaum of D. Loveman & Co., sent us this week a bolt of sheeting and six spools of thread. Mrs. H. H. and Miss Flora Wright, of Fisk University, a bolt of gingham with thread, buttons, pins and trimmings. The home was already indebted to these two ladies for sheets and other necessary articles; Mrs. J. J. Williams, dishes, soap and washing powder; Mrs. Green H. Hall, 1 sheet; Mrs. Richmond, bowls, pitcher, bed spreads; Mrs. — Davis, knives, forks and several articles of clothing; Mrs. Tyree, a bundle of clothes for children; Mr. Louis Goldner, $6.75 in meat.

Cash Receipts for September.—Received from board and tuition $28.55; Congregational Church, Rev. Jas. Bond, pastor, $8.75; Fireside School, 70 cents; Missionary Society 1st Baptist Church, East Nashville, $1.05; Mrs. and Miss Flora Wright, $1.50; friend, 30 cents; Mr. W. F. Waters, $1.00; total, $41.35. Expenses for month: Groceries, $19.92; coal, $2.70; pins and scissors, 25 cents; thread, 27 cents; nails 20 cents; expressman, 35 cents; carpenter work and lumber work for beds and shelves, $10.50; paid on stove, $2.00; on springs and cotton pads, $4.00. Total, $43.79.
